a. President's Report:

President Aronson hoped everyone enjoyed the 4th of July Fireworks and Parade. However, after seeing the picture taken by the Lake Geneva Regional News on social media, he stated how disappointed he was in the public display of disrespect of the United States' current administration. President Aronson is not sure who was in charge of the parade, but this action may end future parades. The parade is for the little ones and if this behavior continues during a public parade then President Aronson will not support parades in this community. Also, he will not allow the Bloomfield Police Department and Bloomfield-Genoa City Fire Department to participate in future parades.

President Aronson stated the Village Board has been doing great things and there is more to come. We do not need this nonsense to continue, what you do in your bars, garages, and man caves is your business. We all should be showing Respect and Pride in Bloomfield, not adolescent behavior.
